EARLY DROP IN H. C. L. EXPECTED BY PUBLIC

Federal Board Promises Full Relief When Stock Now on Hand is Absorbed

Washington, April 6.—Nationwide reports from Federal Reserve Bank officials, disclose their opinion that the post war era of "extravagance and reckless buying" by the public is nearing its end.

A "hesitation if not an actual recession" of prices is noted and the Federal Reserve Board's statement summarizes its advice as indicating a generally more hopeful view of the country's business condition than several months.

While price changes were shown by the Board not to be universal, they were nevertheless regarded as positive and of importance as a basis for reckoning what the immediate future holds.

Relief from the high prices for the consumer will not be completely obtained until present stocks are absorbed in practically all lines, according to the Board's view.

Manufacturers everywhere, however, were shown to hold the view that the peak of high prices has been reached and to expect a gradual recession.

In the clothing trade, particularly, the Board said there was a marked tendency of the public to make old supplies last longer and to refuse to pay exorbitant prices.

This phase can mean only that an awakening has come, the statement said, and that many people have arrived at the conclusion that they are themselves responsible for a continuing high range of prices.

Shoe Prospects Less Encouraging
Wholesalers in the dry goods trade, to some extent, have taken a "commendatory attitude" and are discouraging customers from placing heavy fall orders. This has served to slacken demand and create a feeling that lower prices will follow.

Reports do not give encouragement concerning a price reduction in shoes. There was, however, a wide divergence of opinion as to what shoe and leather prices will do.

Eastern seaboard cities reported a "piling up of commodities" on this side of the Atlantic. The exchange situation was beginning to reflect itself on the export market as well as through a general reduction by Europeans in their foreign buying, it was noted.

Business and financial developments during March also were marked by confusion and lack of uniformity of opinion, reports from the several reserve districts showed. But throughout the detailed observations of these officials, there was a distinctly optimistic tone.

Summed up, it was:

"The outlook for the spring season, both industrially and agriculturally, is excellent. But modifying factors are inadequacy of labor supply and shortage of various kinds of building materials, as well as borrowing facilities of banks."

HARTFORD BOY HONORED BY UNIVERSITY GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

At a meeting of the Shaler Geological Society of the University of Kentucky, Glenn Tinsley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Tinsley, of Hartford, was elected Secretary for the ensuing term.

Other officers elected were: James Handell, Riverside, president; Lafayette Herndon, Fulton, vice president; and Walter Morris, Lexington, treasurer.

The society is composed of students majoring in Geology, and to be selected as an officer of the society is no small honor.

OHIO COUNTESS APPOINTED PENITENTIARY GUARD

Mr. C. L. Wedding, of Dundee, has been appointed a Guard in the Eddyville Penitentiary. He left for that city, March 31, and began his duties April 1. Mr. Wedding served in the Spanish American War and in the Philippines, and attended an Officer's Training Camp in the recent World War, but failed to pass the final physical examination necessary to secure a commission. For several years, he has served as Constable in the Sulphur Springs Magisterial District.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING BY HARTFORD CITIZENS

Organize To Secure Community House; Rest Room to Be Continued

A medium sized congregation of representative Hartford Citizens held a very enthusiastic but businesslike meeting at the Court House last Thursday evening. The chief purpose of the gathering was to launch a movement to purchase, lease or erect a suitable building to be used as a community centre.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. M. L. McCracken, who in a brief but pointed address told of some of the needs of the city and outlined a plan for concentrating the efforts of the many organizations working for the welfare of Ohio County citizens.

He was followed by Judge W. H. Barnes, who in this and a later address told of the lack of proper amusement and recreation for the young folks of Hartford and community and how a Community House would furnish a place where wholesome entertainment and recreation could be found.

Mr. M. L. McCracken was elected Chairman of the meeting and L. G. Barrett served as Secretary. Among others who made addresses or took part in the various discussions were: Messrs. R. R. Riley, J. S. Glenn, Mack Cook, Prof. Bruner, J. H. B. Carson, Henry Leach, Wm. Bean, J. B. Tappan, Sam Keown and Ira Bean; Mesdames J. B. Wilson, J. S. Glenn, A. K. Anderson and Schroeter; and Miss Elizabeth Moore.

Upon motion the Chairman appointed as a membership committee, the following: Messrs. Howard Ellis, Sydney Williams and J. B. Tappan. The following were selected as a committee on Ways and Means: Messrs. Wm. Barnes, R. R. Riley and C. O. Hunter.

This matter having thus been placed in the hands of suitable committees, the question as to whether or not the Ladies Rest Room should be continued, while the above plans were materializing, was thoroughly discussed and when the vote was taken it was unanimously decided to continue this service another year.

The committee selected to secure funds for the continuance of the Rest Room is composed of Mesdames A. K. Anderson and M. L. McCracken.

Among the organizations that would make the Community House their headquarters are: Red Cross, Ladies' Rest Room, Parent Teachers' Association, Farm Bureau, American Legion, Boy Scouts and Basket Ball Teams.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF BIRTH

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barrett, Narrows, R. F. D. No. 2, announce the birth of a 9 lb. girl, Friday, April 2, 1920. The young lady will bear the name Geraldine Barrett.

TOBACCO GROWERS PLAN NEW ORGANIZATION

Farmers Would Eliminate Middlemen by Operating Their Own Floors

Paducah, Ky., April 1.—Definite action for an organization of all tobacco growers of the black patch of Western Kentucky was adopted at a mass-meeting held at the courthouse here. More than 350 planters from all counties of the district were present.

The organization plan was presented by F. G. Ewing, Tennessee grower, and proposes to band all growers of the district together in an efficient working unit for the operation of loose floors under the direction of the farmers themselves, doing away with the middleman's profit.

Growers unanimously pledged to hold the present crop and the next two crops. The scheme of organization provides a minimum price on the tobacco brought to the floor.

Growers received pledges of support from Paducah bankers and merchants.

U. S. TAKES STEPS TO FINANCE LEAF TOBACCO

West Virginia Bank as Medium For U. S. Loan to Europe, Board's Plan

Washington, April 3.—Growers of dark tobacco in Western Kentucky and Tennessee who have been unable to market their crops because of the condition of the foreign exchange may be able to obtain relief through loans by the War Finance Board to a West Virginia bank, which has under consideration the financing of the sale of tobacco.

Representative D. H. Kieselhoe, Second Kentucky District, was informed by Eugene Myer, Jr., director of the War Finance Corporation, that he is carrying on negotiations with a West Virginia bank in regard to a loan to supply funds for sale of the tobacco in Italy and other foreign countries. Within a few days he expects to have definite information regarding the success of the negotiations.

Exchange State Barred Sales
Italy, France and other foreign countries have been purchasing the Western Kentucky and Tennessee dark fired tobacco which is one of the principal export types, and have been selling it through Government agencies, collecting a tax. Because of the condition of exchange, however, they were unable to buy this year.

Under the proposed plan the West Virginia Bank would borrow money from the War Finance Corporation under authority of existing laws and would lend it to the foreign Governments, accepting bonds of those Governments as security and holding a lien on the taxes collected by the foreign Governments.

FISCAL COURT

The Ohio County Fiscal Court met Tuesday and will likely be in session for about three days. The members spent considerable time yesterday, observing the work of various tractors on the roads. They will at this session purchase 5 or 6 tractors for use on the roads of the County. There are many claims to be allowed at this time.

ANOTHER PHYSICIAN TO LOCATE IN HARTFORD

Dr. H. H. Pendleton, of Centertown, has purchased the residence of Mr. Ola Porter on Clay Street and we understand he will locate here for the purpose of practicing his profession in this vicinity. Mr. Porter recently moved to Louisville.

DON CARLOS CULLEY JR.

Mrs. L. G. Barrett has received announcement of the arrival of a son at the home of her brother, Mr. Don Carlos Culley and Mrs. Culley, of Stanley, on April 1. The little fellow will bear the name Don Carlos Culley, Jr.

CASH BONUS IN SIGHT FOR EX-SERVICE MEN

Committee Would Raise Funds By a Sales of Luxury Tax

Washington, April 2.—By a decisive vote the House Ways and Means Committee today decided to recommend passage of soldier relief legislation, with probable provision for a cash bonus. Details of the plans will be referred to subcommittees.

The committee programme declares against any bond issue, saying the funds to carry out the relief plans should be raised by sales or luxury taxes.

TRIED AND ACQUITTED

A case that drew quite a crowd to the Court House here Monday, was that of the Commonwealth of Ky., for Use and Benefit of Hartford, vs. J. W. Wilson. Mr. Wilson was charged with Breach of the Peace, and Pendleton Hudson was the complaining witness.

The case was tried before a jury and after hearing the evidence, defendant was acquitted.

SUDIE E. GRANT

Miss Sudie E. Grant, daughter of Mr. Lefe Grant, of Barrett's Ferry, died at the Western Kentucky Insane Asylum, Hopkinsville, Ky., April 1, 1920, after a brief illness of pneumonia. She was 31 years of age March 18.

Until the time of her mental loss a few years ago, she was of a reserved and quiet disposition. She professed religion and joined the Baptist church at Narrows about 1911 and remained a member until her death.

Besides her father, she leaves two brothers, Virgil and Mervil, both of whom reside in the Barrett's Ferry section. Her friends were numbered by those who knew her.

The body was interred in Pleasant Grove cemetery, April 3, in the presence of a large congregation of mourning friends.

BADLY NEEDED LEVEE

A delegation composed of Messrs. Willie and Willis Harl, Thomas and J. M. Smith, Lorenza Bennett, Lefe Grant and others came to Hartford, Tuesday, for the purpose of petitioning the Fiscal Court to build a levee across a low section of road between Beech Grove schoolhouse and Davidson. This short section of highway needs a levee if any road in the county needs it. The editor taught two fall sessions and a spring session of school at Beech Grove and there are always several weeks every winter when two thirds of the district cannot get to school. During the past fall and winter this road has been almost impassable most of the time.

OIL WELL

A number of Owensboro citizens went to Hancock county near Pellville, yesterday to view the operations at the third well being drilled by the Newman Oil and Gas company. The drilling has now reached 620 feet and though oil has been struck, it is not in sufficient quantities yet to satisfy the owners and drilling will continue. The other two wells are small producers, the second pumping at the rate of twelve barrels a day.—Owensboro Messenger.

CURB PLACED ON WHISKY BY COMMISSIONER KRAMER

Physicians Will Be Limited to 300 Prescriptions for Year Under New Order

Louisville, April 1.—Sweeping regulations issued yesterday by John F. Kramer, Federal Prohibition Commissioner, in the opinion of James H. Combs, prohibition Director for Kentucky, and other Government officials, will abruptly end writing by Louisville physicians of whisky "prescriptions" which, it is charged, have been issued here by the "whole sale."

Commissioner Kramer, according to information received by Director Combs by telegraph, has ruled that only 300 prescription blanks yearly will be issued to physicians, and druggists will not be authorized to purchase or use more than 400 gallons of whisky yearly.

William V. Gregory, United States District Attorney, said last night that 300 prescriptions calling for whisky are ample to meet requirements of any "reputable" physician in a year.

He said that thousands of prescriptions have been written by some physicians within the last few months, but that many others, including those who stand highest in the medical profession, have only about six a month.

Three Books Is Limit

Other sections of the regulations, which Federal officials here regard as the most drastic yet issued for enforcement of the national prohibition law, provide that physicians who have already had more than three prescription books shall not receive another book in 1920, and that all prescriptions shall be issued on the regulation prescription blank issued by the Government.

The new regulations were promulgated in Louisville yesterday by former Gov. James D. Black, chief inpector for Director Combs, and his aides—Judge E. Hogge, Henry M. Maher and W. B. Standfield who have been in Louisville for the last two weeks investigating reports of "boot logging."

MOVING ABOUT

Mr. M. L. McCracken recently purchased the residence occupied by Mr. Moses Hudson and family and will tear it down and rebuild. Mr. Hudson has rented the residence of Mrs. Laura Stevens, which was occupied by Mr. McCracken, thus considerable moving became necessary. Mr. Hudson and family are now occupying the Stevens residence and Mr. McCracken and family will occupy rooms at the Duke boarding house, until their new residence is completed.

DIES AT COUNTY HOUSE

Mat Woodward, an aged woman, who has been an inmate of the County House for about 35 years, died Sunday, after a long illness of kidney trouble. She was buried Monday, in the cemetery on the County Farm. She was weak minded, said to have been caused by overwork when a child. Her former home was near Beaver Dam.

KENTUCKY WAS ORIGINATOR OF MOONLIGHT SCHOOLS

50 County Superintendents who have been heard from within the past two months declare that the moonlight school work has increased their day school attendance from 20 to 30 percent, besides teaching hundreds in their counties to read and write.
6,000 moonlight school teachers (approximately) who have given their service voluntarily to the State do not want the State to discontinue the work and thus discredit their efforts.
40,000 club women who have raised $22,000, taught moonlight schools and campaigned, do not want the work discontinued and their efforts discredited.
5,000 communities organized for community improvement which attribute their improvement to the moonlight schools want the work to go on.
130,000 who have learned to read and write desire to continue their work.
This is the first educational enterprise in which Kentucky is the recognized leader. The United States Bureau of Education issued a bulletin in 1914 and sent it broadcast throughout the country, making the following statement:
"It will be part of the lasting glory of the State of Kentucky that it has taken the lead in this movement. It is the first State to undertake to offer to all the people of whatever age an opportunity to learn to read and write and thus break from the prison walls of sense and silence within which the illiterate man and woman must live. It marks the beginning of a new era in Kentucky and for all the country for the idea will be taken up by other States and the work will go on until the curse and shame of illiteracy have been lifted from every State in the Union."
Thirty-six States have followed Kentucky's lead and are putting on campaigns to eradicate illiteracy, the State Legislature of New York in the 1919 session voting $100,000 to eradicate illiteracy, this amount to be used in one year's campaign.
Kentucky took the lead during the war in the teaching of illiterate soldiers.
The moonlight school literature was used in all training camps.
50,000 copies of the moonlight school reader were sent by the government for illiterate soldiers overseas.
The Y. M. C. A., when the soldiers were being demobilized, instructed their educational directors to have each man of limited education take one of the moonlight school readers home with him.
GEORGETOWN—Dogs raided the sheep flock of Clarence Graves and, after killing eleven lambs, drove the others over a cliff, crippling many.

MORROW WILL PROBE LYNCHING AT MAYSVILLE

Negro Betrayer of White Girl
Is Taken From Officers To Paris.

"I should not care to talk about it until I have learned more details of the affair," said Governor Morrow this morning when asked for a statement at The Seelbach on the Maysville-Lexington Pike lynching. While he did not commit himself, the Governor indicated that he would discuss the lynching as soon as Bourbon and Fleming County officers had officially reported the circumstances to him.
Maysville, Ky., Apr. 4.—Grant Smith, negro, 40 years old, a man with a wife and four children, paid the penalty for his intimacy with the 14-year-old daughter of his former employer when a mob of farmers hanged him to the cross arm of a telegraph pole on the Maysville Lexington Pike, five miles north of Maysville, Mason County, at an early hour March 30.
The mob, thirty strong, without demonstration, but with an air of grim determination, surrounded Deputy Sheriff G. W. Powell of Fleming County and Chief of Police Link of Paris as they were about to take the negro into the Paris jail at 6 o'clock Tues. night. Forcing the officers at the point of pistols to hold up their hands, with the remark, "We're going to take the nigger," the armed men dragged the negro from the Chief's automobile to one of five they had waiting in the shadow of a bridge nearby. The whole procedure took only three or four minutes.
"You'll find these in the ashes in the morning," said one, pointing to Chief Link's handcuffs on the negro. For hours the negro's fate was unknown. His body, swinging in the wind fifty miles from Paris, was the mute evidence of the mob's deed. The negro was taken through Bourbon, Nichols and Fleming Counties and into Mason County before he was lynched.

SOLDIER MISSING SINCE MARCH 16 FOUND MURDERED

Camp Zachary Taylor authorities were notified of the finding of the body of Corp. Raphael Perlmutter of the Twenty-sixth Infantry Band, who disappeared March 16 at Cookeville, Tenn. Perlmutter's body, with the throat cut and three bullet holes in the head, was discovered just a mile outside of Cookeville.
Corporal Perlmutter had been on recruiting duty with the band unit three weeks at the time of his disappearance.
The theory of foul play was based on the fact that Perlmutter, according to another member of the band, left with the avowed intention of finding some "moonshine" whisky, while another soldier in the unit said Perlmutter carried a number of bank drafts with him.
The information received from Cookeville threw no light on the circumstances of the murder. The body may be ordered sent to Camp Zachary Taylor for burial.
Perlmutter's home address was 627 Fox Street, Bronx, New York. He had been on recruiting duty three weeks when he disappeared. His service record shows eighteen months' duty with the A. E. F. He re-enlisted for a year at Camp Meade, Md.

GROGER GIVES ADVICE TO LADY WHO GETS HELP

"It Sure Did Wonders For Me,"
Mrs. Huth Gratefully
Declares

Louisville, Ky., March 30.—If one is in trouble there are several ways in which to get relief. Of course one thing to do is to see a good physician get his advice and then, after you have it, follow it. Many people do not have the confidence in doctors to enable them to benefit by their advice and feel that some of the old-fashioned remedies our grandmothers used to use are the best. Here is a story of a lady whose grocer acted as her physician. Read what good results she had after she had taken his advice and tried Trutona, and after many other methods had failed.
"Two years ago," says Mrs. Anna Catherine Math of 1512 South Preston Street, Louisville, well known and highly respected in her neighborhood, "I became afflicted with kidney trouble. I tried most everything under the sun and even took treatment under the doctor for a long time. My back ached almost continually and I had about given up hopes of ever being well again.
"Well, one day I was talking to my grocer and he persuaded me to get a bottle of Trutona and try it, because he had taken it and obtained such splendid results. I was almost afraid because I had taken so many things without any results. Anyway I did as the grocer suggested and went down town and bought a bottle of Trutona. I can honestly say that I am feeling better than I have for a long time. My kidney trouble has left me and my back doesn't ache any more either. It sure did wonders for me."

For something like eighteen months, doctors chemists and scientists have been trying to find the germ which has caused so much destruction and loss of life in this country. In the army alone, during the recent conflict, this epidemic was the cause of more casualties than all the shells, gas and horrors that the Hun could invent. As yet, as witnessed by the above, science has been unable to make any progress against this ravaging disease. Its attack is sudden, its work is rapid, and the results are terrible. Even if the victim is fortunate enough to escape with his life, often times he is left in a weakened, run down condition from which it is extremely hard to recover.

Now here's where TRUTONA comes in. It has been proved in countless numbers of cases, proved by actual experiment which offers the best kind of evidence, that this Perfect Tonic is just the thing to build up a constitution broken down by the Influenza. From the very nature of its composition and the ingredients it contains, it is a strength giving, system purifying medicine which quickly rebuilds the patient whose vitality is at the low water mark.

Health officials tell us that if we expect to overcome this plague, to put a stop to its wide spread progress, individuals MUST take care of themselves. To say that "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is but to quote an old, time worn adage; but if it were ever true, if it ever had a grain of sense and meaning, it certainly is doubly so today during the fight against the Influenza. Prepare yourself and help the community in which you live.

DOCTOR GIVES ALL TO SAVING OF HUMANITY

Is To Continue Good Work By Unqualifiedly Indors-
ing Trutona

Indianapolis, Ind., March 30.—There is one more familiar with medicines and therefore more capable of judging of the merits of a preparation than the doctor. That is why the following statement made a few days ago by Dr. A. J. McDonald, a well known and highly respected physician here, should prove of interest to hundreds of people suffering from similar troubles. In recommending Trutona Dr. McDonald not only backs his claim with fifty years of medical practice, but he has also taken Trutona and knows from experience just what it will do.

"I know of no medicine that I could recommend to aged, weakened run down men and women that would equal Trutona," is the tribute the doctor pays the Perfect Tonic.

"Trutona came to my attention at a time when I was nervous and generally broken in health. Overwork had caused a weakened and feeble condition of my nerves. I seemed to have given out entirely. Why, I could not raise my hand to my head before I began the use of Trutona.
I have given this tonic a fair trial and as a result my strength has returned and my nerves are as steady as ever. I have no interest in the Trutona Medicine Company but I have given all my life to the relief of suffering humanity and I'm going to continue that policy by heartily endorsing and recommending this wonderful tonic Trutona."

The changeable weather of Autumn gives rise to a knotty problem of dressing for comfort and health. Most folks lean toward the warmer periods—that's why colds are so prevalent when the thermometer drops and the raw winds blow.

taken after exposure or at the first sign of a cold, is helpful toward warding off the attack; it is also efficient as a router of the cold that has "taken root."

Could Not Stand Straight

It does not take long, when the kidneys are out of order and not doing their work properly, for poisonous acids to accumulate in the system and cause aches and pains. D. C. Diamond, 2865 W. 30St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I caught cold and it settled in my kidneys. My back and sides were so lame and sore I could not stand straight. I use Foley Kidney Pills with good results and am glad to testify to their helping power."—(Adv.)

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

FRANKLIN K. LANE.

FRANKLIN K. LANE TO "FOLLOW ON"

Accepts Invitation to Become National Chairman of Salvation Army's Annual Appeal for Funds.

WASHINGTON'S BEST BELOVED RESTARTING LIFE AT 55.

Former Cabinet Officer Before Entering the Oil Business as an Executive for the Doherty Interests Will Lend His Great Abilities to the Church Militant Organization.

Franklin K. Lane, referred to far and wide as "Washington's best loved man," is undertaking two notable innovations at an age when most men think mainly of retiring to the quiet of private life. One is to "earn enough money to support my family and keep my bills paid," and the other is "to step down from a high place to resume my place among the shirt-sleeve boys and give them a hand if I can."

Two history making statements from a man of Mr. Lane's attainments and station in life! And the remarkable part of it all is that he puts the shirt-sleeve matter—the thing about helping his neighbors—ahead of that other thing—making more money in order the better to underwrite the Autumn of his life!

Few men reach a higher niche in the affection and confidence of the public mind than has this remarkable man from the West, who was once an editor, then a lawyer and finally a member of the President's cabinet and who withdraws from public life to "earn a better living" after rendering a service to the government the extent and value of which would be impossible to estimate. Still fewer men are called to such responsible places as Franklin K. Lane will now occupy. He will enter the oil business as an executive for the Doherty interests and will be established in New York city for that purpose by April 1. But the rosy prospect of making "a living wage" after several years spent in struggling along on the salary of a cabinet officer has not blinded Mr. Lane to another opportunity—that for striking a few powerful blows on behalf of the "man who is down, but never out!"

Franklin K. Lane has accepted an invitation from Commander Evangeline Booth to become the national chairman for the Salvation Army's annual appeal for funds in 1920. He is already on this job, although Wall Street does not greet him as an oil well executive for another month.

"It is a genuine privilege to find opportunity for encouraging a work so direct and practical and so valuable to the masses of the people as the work of the Salvation Army," said Mr. Lane at his office in Washington the other day. "When Commander Miss Booth asked me to take the responsibilities of national chairman for the 1920 appeal of that organization," continued the secretary, "the first thought that flashed across my mind was, How can I spare time for such work when I am entering upon a commercial task of great responsibility?"

"And then there flashed across my mind a vision of the things the Salvation Army does—the help it gives to men and women and little children just when and where they need it most—and I thought to myself that after all there could be no more important thing than this. So I accepted—along with the other job—and I am trusting to the generosity of my new employers to indorse my action in the matter."

"I believe every right thinking man and woman in America owes the Salvation Army some of his or her time every year. And I am going to pay my share. I am going to get my shoulder squarely behind the movement for human that can win the hearts and the confidence of the common people like this Salvation Army has won them in recent years. I am going to pull off my coat and do some real work that will show where I stand when it comes to weighing the homely, unostentatious and highly practical relief methods of this amazing band of workers. I heard the call. The problems of the poor are there to be solved, and they can use my poor efforts perhaps, so I have answered the call."

"I won't do much talking in the coming drive. I will do real work, and when I do talk I don't want to talk to anyone but actual workers. There will be no speech making by me to those who might be curious to hear a former cabinet officer in action, but who are not interested in the work of the Salvation Army. I shall talk to workers and only to workers. The day for oratory in such matters has gone. We are down to brass tacks."

"I think I owe it as a citizen of America to show my understanding and appreciation of the helpful work the Salvation Army is doing in its rescue homes, maternity hospitals, free clinics, industrial homes, fresh air farms and tenement house relief work."

"My testimony is not needed, however, in this matter. There are 2,000,000 or 3,000,000 of young Americans who went into the recent war either unaware that the Salvation Army existed or having no use for its methods if they did know of it. So far as I can learn these men came out of that war unanimous on one subject—and that was that the Salvation Army understood the average man, knew how to deal with him and simply 'delivered the goods' on the 100 per cent basis."

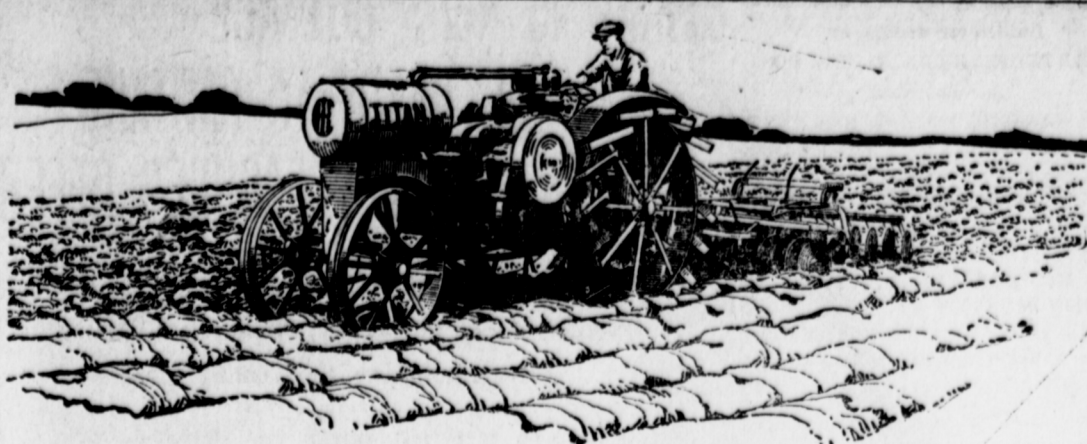

"There is no division of opinion on that one subject. There could have been no greater test for the Salvation Army than the test it received in the war. So after all I am merely adding my voice to the mighty chorus I have referred to when I say that the Salvation Army has long since won the right to make an appeal to the rest of us for its maintenance, and I am sure it will not make that appeal in vain."

"The Salvation Army one year ago abandoned its old custom of begging in the streets the year around so that its workers could devote all of their time and attention to the poor. It makes an annual appeal each May. Personally I know of no greater bulwark that could be raised against the rising tide of human unrest than to strengthen the hands of this band of self sacrificing Christian toilers who have the confidence of all men and women, regardless of race, creed, color or position in life. I think it is important for the interests of our advancing civilization that such a practical and wholesome work be stimulated and maintained to the utmost."

"They say there are no 'down and outers' any more. Personally I do not believe it, or if I did believe it I would know that the abnormal times have swung the pendulum back too far on one side—and that it will swing far to the other side directly. There will always be a bottom to society. The poor will always be with us. We owe it to our fellow men to know our neighbor and share his troubles and problems, and only by that method can we, in all fairness and righteousness, keep the scales even in this life."

"I am proud to face the problems of the poor with the Salvation Army in such a trying hour, and I hope that American men and women will stand with me in the work ahead of us. But they must be workers. I shall have no time to entertain mere observers."

Both for the organization that gives aid and relief to the poor and for the poor themselves, the high cost of living has been a troublesome factor in recent months. Money does not go far these days, but there's no one in the world who can get more worth-while work out of a dollar than can the Salvationists. In this country they gave away 3,000,707 meals in the twelve-month ending last September 30, and provided 371,334 meals besides at approximate cost. They supplied free beds for 1,181,547 night lodgings and 1,498,887 at a merely nominal charge. And in addition to all this and to all that was done for thousands in the Army institutions they gave temporary relief to 709,351 persons.

Get Your Tractor Now

THOUSANDS of farmers now own Titan 10-20 tractors. Ask any of them whenever you get a chance and you will hear that they found owning a tractor operating successfully on low-priced, low-grade fuels—kerosene, distillate, etc.—is a paying investment from the very outset.

At hundreds of International tractor schools in the past few months farmers have been shown that kerosene engines must be specially designed—and that Titan 10-20 tractors are specially designed and built to operate on kerosene, or any other crude oil distillate testing 39 degrees Baume or higher.

Titan—The Best Tractor Buy

They are easier to handle than a farm team and easier to care for. You can get your work done on time, plow deeper, prepare better seed beds, do more work with less help, and get more profit from your farm. They do belt work that cannot be done by horses and pull more in proportion to weight than horses. Horses must have rest whether the work is crowding you or not. If necessary, you can keep your Titan working continuously, without rest, until the work is done.

Here you have economy, efficiency, dependability—three prime essentials of farm power—carrying an assurance of bigger crops, better yields, and fatter profit. Order a Titan early. Be sure of having it for the labors ahead.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER FARM MACHINES SALES SERVICE

SOLDIER'S EQUIPMENT

It is advised that current instructions from the Quartermaster General Director of Purchase and Storage contemplate that applications for issue or reissue of equipment to discharged soldiers be submitted direct to the nearest military supply base instead of to the Office of the Quartermaster General as heretofore.

In accordance with these instructions, applications from discharged soldiers resident in Kentucky should be submitted to the Camp Supply Officer, Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., or Camp Supply Officer Camp Knox, whichever is nearer the applicant.

Original discharge certificate should accompany application and affidavits supporting application should be acknowledged before civil or military officer empowered to administer oaths. Blank application forms will be furnished by the Camp Supply Officer, Camp Knox, Ky., upon applications.

LAD TAKES $118,000 AS HIS DAY'S WAGES

New York, March 29.—Denis Shea, 17 years old and rather small for his age, went to the offices of Harriman & Co., 111 Broadway, yesterday and asked for a position as messenger.

He seemed a bright, intelligent lad and he produced what purported to be gilt-edged references from another well-known downtown firm, so he was hired.

Yesterday afternoon while on his first errand he disappeared with Liberty bonds and other securities valued at $118,000. A general alarm confidential to the 11,000 members of the Police Department was sent out, but no trace of the missing messenger or the bonds has been found.

From all indications, Republican candidates intend to attempt to ride into office on the Railroad bill.
This is really the only affirmative thing the G. O. P. Congress has done in a special session of more than four months. When we compare this with the tremendous volume of vital work left undone, this single act will not present a very enticing plea for votes.

KENTUCKY FARM BUREAU RAPIDLY GAINING GROUND

More than 500 new members a week is the pace of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, and the campaign for members in many counties has hardly begun, bad roads and sickness having joined hands to retard the work, while in some sections no membership work at all has been attempted, because of the adverse conditions. But roads are getting in good shape again and the flu is rapidly disappearing, so the weekly rate of ingathering is due for a big jump.

Illinois has jumped from 50,000 to 70,000 members since the annual meeting in Chicago, March 3. Other states are progressing in proportion.

Hartford and vicinity experienced nearly every variety of weather known to the calendar as an Easter others say there is much that is not damaged. All in all, this has been one of the most disagreeable Easter several years.

SPRING IS HERE BUT ARE YOU READY TO PARTAKE OF PLEASURES OFFERED?

Trutona is Daily Winning Unstinted Praise From Hundreds For Overcoming Tired, Draggy, No-account Feeling, So Prevalent During the Coming Season.

Does the coming of Spring with all its pleasures mean anything to YOU?

"That all depends," may be your answer and admittedly "it all depends"—it all depends upon whether or not your system has withstood the exacting siege of winter that leaves in its wake so many many thousands of people with completely run-down systems.

In fact, conspicuously in the minority are those who have completely avoided the ravages of winter maladies. True, there are thousands who were successful in warding off attacks of influenza and still more thousands who escaped pneumonia,
but WHO IS THERE THAT DID NOT EXPERIENCE AT LEAST ONE HEAVY WINTER COLD DURING THE PAST SEASON? Remember, only second in severity to pneumonia and influenza, is the heavy, winter cough or cold.

Like pneumonia and influenza, winter coughs and colds tend to weaken and materially affect almost every vital organ of the body.
People who have suffered a heavy winter cough, yet feel that their systems have escaped the strain of winter weather, are sadly mistaken.
If they could but grasp the facts, they would not wonder why they feel so tired, sluggish lifeless, and generally out-of-sit, when they know they should be full of 'pep' and vitality, in perfect harmony with the invigorating breezes and sunshiny weather of Spring.

Thousands of people are now taking Trutona, the Perfect Tonic, to overcome this weakened physical condition so prevalent at the close of winter and hundreds of public statements now being made daily, prove that none has been disappointed in Trutona as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorator.

Trutona does its work quickly.
It speedily attacks the impurities in the blood that might, if left alone bring serious results. It rebuilds broken down tissues, strengthens the nerve centers and produces proper digestion and assimilation of food, at the same time throwing off any decayed matter that may have accumulated. In short, Trutona, thoroughly and efficiently tones up every organ of the body and gives to your physical being the vigor and vitality, which alone can place within your reach the many pleasures which Spring offers to the healthy man and woman.

Trutona is sold in Hartford, at James H. Williams, and Beaver Dam, at Beaver Dam Drug Store.

LALLEY LIGHT and POWER

It is Costing You Money Not to Have a Lalley

It is an actual fact that any farmer is losing money by not having Lalley Electric Light and Power.

You lose money in the comfort and convenience which the Lalley would give you and your family.

You lose money in the time the Lalley would save in the farm work.

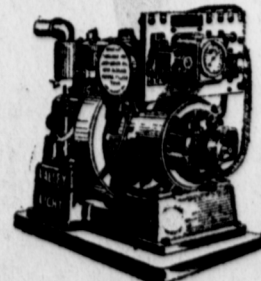

You lose money in the labor the Lalley would actually save. All these things are worth money; and if you do not economize in them, you are the loser.

The Lalley IS an economy. It DOES pay for itself by what it saves. It IS an investment, not merely an expense.

Thousands of Lalley-Light owners know these things are true, and they have said so over and over again.

There can be no doubt now, after ten years of use, that the Lalley plant is right.

Neither can there be any doubt that it does its work with extraordinary efficiency and extraordinary economy.

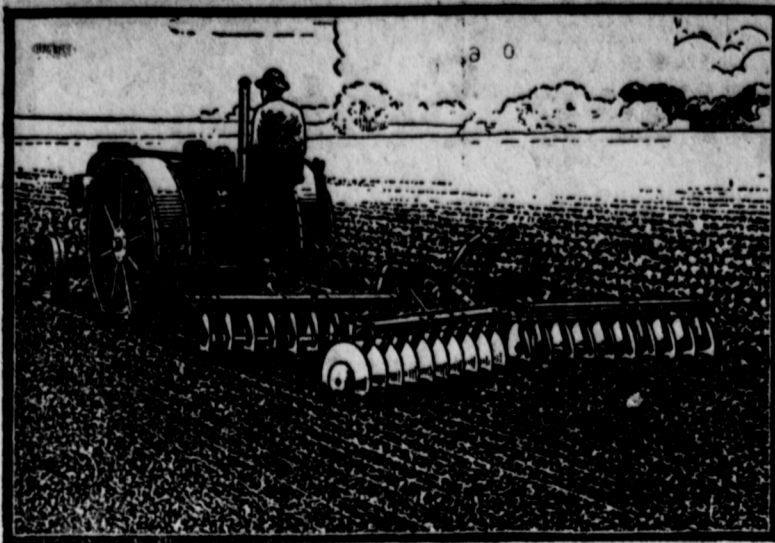

Lalley-Light is a complete unit—engine and generator—with 16-cell storage battery. It supplies ample electricity for lights, water pump, washing machine, separator, cream separator, fencing mill, iron, etc.

A Tractor Disc Harrow Built to Meet Exceptionally Severe Soil Conditions

You can hitch our John Deere Double-Action Heavy Tractor Disc Harrow to your tractor regardless of the make of tractor. The clevis on the tractor hitch is adjustable to get the correct line of draft on different height tractor draw-bars.

This Harrow is built heavy and strong throughout to make it do a good job of disking under most difficult conditions. It is practically all steel with double-bar gang frames, well braced and securely riveted.

And the class of work it does will please you. The front section is out-throw; the rear, in-throw. The soil is left level and well pulverized. The rear section is connected with a "goose-neck" ahead of the front gangs. By using this style of connection, the rear section trails properly at all times. And this harrow penetrates unusually satisfactorily because of its weight, the low tractor hitch and the low coupling between the front and the rear gangs.

Come in and let us show you this time-saving, labor saving, thorough-working harrow.

THE TRADE MARK OF QUALITY MADE FAMOUS BY GOOD IMPLEMENTS

AT THE CHICAGO CONVENTION

Delegates from Kentucky and other States to the Republican National Convention in Chicago may be interested in learning that they are not expected to have anything to do with the nomination of a Republican candidate for President. Of course, they are to assemble at the Convention Hall, and go through the form of casting their ballot for some one of the candidates, but lest any of them labor under the delusion that they are to really have any voice in the selection of the Republican candidate we are printing for their information and guidance a recent statement made by Harry Daugherty, who is manager of Senator Harding's campaign for the Republican Presidential nomination.

Mr. Daugherty said:

"I don't expect Senator Harding to be nominated on the first, second or third ballot, but think we can well afford to take our chances that about eleven minutes after 2 o'clock Friday morning at the convention when fifteen or twenty men, somewhat weary, are sitting around a table, some one of them will say, 'Whom shall we nominate?' At that decisive time the friends of Senator Harding's campaign manager, and was intended to boost the chances of his chief for securing the nomination.

The above statement is part of an interview given out by Senator Harding's campaign manager, and was intended to boost the chances of his chief for securing the nomination.

Mr. Daugherty is a Republican of the old school, and he reveals an intimate knowledge of the workings of Republican National Conventions. The delegates, a thousand or so of them, are there, to be sure. They are given some latitude in their voting so long as a nomination cannot be made. The bosses indulge them to air their views at the Convention hall, and enjoy themselves generally.

But about eleven minutes after 2 o'clock on Friday morning (what an unlucky day?) the real work of selecting the candidate will be done. Fifteen or twenty men will gather around the table. Boss Penrose will be at the head. Boss Barnes will be there. So will Boss Crane, and Smoot and Hertz. The situation will be gone over. Each candidate will be appraised. A decision will be reached, and the Republican candidate for the Presidency will be named. Then a messenger will be selected. Maybe it will be Mr. Hert. Anyway, somebody will go out of the ante-room to the convention hall tell the boys whom they are to vote for, the last ballot will be taken, and a Republican nominee for President will be put forth as the overwhelming popular choice of a convention that was a people's gathering, and assembled to register the people's will.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Mrs. Rachel Francis Johnson was born July 28, 1842, and died March 24, 1920. She was married to William Johnson February 2nd, 1871 and to them were born seven sons and one daughter. They are all living. She joined Oak Grove Baptist church in 1886. In 1887 she moved her membership to Woodwards Valley Baptist church. Here she lived a Christian life until called from labor to reward. She exemplified pure religion in visiting and ministering to the wants of the sick. She was a remarkably industrious woman. Though confined to her bed for three and one half years, she continued to work and spent much of her time in knitting for the soldiers and others.

She bore her afflictions well, never complained but always said "Let the Lord's will be done. Bless the name of the Lord." Her husband and children appropriately dressed her body in spotless white and placed it in a white casket. Those to my mind, represent Rev. 7:14 "These are they which come out of great tribulation and have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb." After funeral services by the writer we buried her body in Carson cemetery.

R. D. BENNETT.

"BURSTS OF FIVE"

When our party arrived in Camp Taylor to begin training, the Company Commander had a Sergeant to search our suit cases, and pockets thoroughly, but the only dangerous weapon found was a quart of liquor in one fellow's pocket. This, the "Sarg" confiscated. The next day the poor fellow from whom the whiskey was taken, became sick and in a few days died at the Base Hospital. A few days later, I was assigned to sweep, dust and mop the Orderly Room and while at work, I heard the following conversation between the Top Kicker and the Skipper:

"How's that fellow gotten along?"
"Died day before yesterday."
"Did he have a contagious disease?"
"Yes, sir."
"Noth' good quart gone to h—."

How many soldiers remember their first "balling out?" Mine is still fresh in my memory.

We had learned to do the facing, march in column of twos and a few other things, and were taking our first lesson in the school of the squad. After making one circle of the field in squad formation, we were commanded to "Squads, Right, Comman—e-e, Halt! Just as I circled round, my pants (which were about 6 sizes too large) came down so low that I could scarcely walk, so I reached down and pulled them up just as we swung into Company Front. The Company Commander saw me and the following conversation ensued:

"Get your hands down there, D— you."
"My pants were coming down, Sir."
"When you are at attention, I want you to keep your blankety blank hands down, even if your d— britches come off of you."
"Ye—Yes, Sir."

When we had been in France about a month, all the Machine Gun Companies of our Division were moved to Les Aix where we resumed training under the supervision of two French Officers, who had seen considerable service at the Front. 'Twas while located here that I did the hardest days work of my entire life. Six companies were located within the city limits and all were supplied with water from a large well about a quarter of a mile out of town. There were no horses with us at that time so the companies took a time-a-bout hauling the water by man power. One bright Sunday morning, after a week of strenuous drill, I ate breakfast and was preparing for a days rest, when an orderly came to the stable in which we were billeted and called off 10 names, among them, mine. We secured ropes and hand sticks and hitched ourselves to the water wagon and all day long, we pumped water and hauled it to the various companies. Believe me, 1032 men do use some water in a day, for cooking, washing and drinking. That Sunday will always retain a place in the memory of yours truly.

FAIRBANKS WEDS

MARY PICKFORD

Los Angeles, March 30.—Mary Pickford and Douglass Fairbanks have been married, it became known here late today. They obtained a license here Saturday and the ceremony was performed Sunday by the Rev. J. Whitcomb Brounger, pastor of Temple Baptist Church.

Miss Pickford, early this month obtained a divorce at Minden, Nev., from Owen Moore. Mr. Fairbank's former wife obtained a divorce nearly two years ago in the East.

Were Married Sunday

Miss Pickford and Mr. Fairbanks were married at 10:30 o'clock Sunday night at the residence of the Rev. Mr. Brounger. Those present included:

Robert Fairbanks, a brother of the bridegroom, the bride's mother, Mrs. Charlotte Smith, the Rev. Henry Miles Cook, assistant pastor of Temple Baptist Church, and R. S. Sparks, deputy county clerk, who issued the license. Mr. Fairbanks acted as groomsman for his brother and Margery Daw, a motion picture actress was bridesmaid.

Cut This Out—It is Worth Money

Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., 2835 Sheffield Ave., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills for pain in sides and back; rheumatism, backache, kidney and bladder ailments; and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache, and sluggish bowels. RED CROSS BRIEFS

Appraisal of the estate of the late James A. Scrymser, pioneer in linking the Americans by cable systems, who designated the American Red Cross and St. Luke's hospital, New York, as his chief eventual legatees, places his fortune at $2,923,940. Mr. Scrymser was one of the leaders in a movement to erect a National Headquarters building for the American Red Cross.

National Headquarters of the Red Cross has appropriated $50,000 from its disaster relief fund to fight the droughts in Montana and North Dakota.

Hebert Quick, former member of the Farm Loan Board heads a commission about to sail for Siberia to superintend the closing of Red Cross operations there.

The Red Cross has just inaugurated a special service in seaport towns for the men and boys who man the merchant ships of the United States.

An appropriation of $10,000 from the National Children's Fund of the American Red Cross to be used for Junior Red Cross activities in the Virgin Islands has just been announced by National Headquarters of the Red Cross.

The American Red Cross has photographed all but 3,000 of the 90,000 graves of Americans who lost their lives in the war. These photographs are being sent the families of the fallen heroes.

There are forty-six Red Cross nurses engaged in Red Cross Public Health Nursing in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky. Requests from chapters for nurses are being received at division headquarters in Cleveland faster than they can be supplied.

Through the medium of the Red Cross, 1,307 soldiers and sailors, during the period between January 10 and March 1, received Liberty Bonds for which they subscribed during their term of service and which for various reasons they had been unable to receive.

Could Not Begin To Tell All

"I could not tell you all the benefits I had from the use of Foley's Honey and Tar," writes Miss Rose Florke, 209 Hawkins Ave., N. Brad-dock, Pa. "I had a cold in my chest and fearing it would cause pneumonia I tried Foley's Honey and Tar and it was not long till I felt relieved. I hope others suffering from severe colds will try it." Many such letters have been written about this time-tried, reliable family medicine for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. (Adv.)

The De Laval Cream Separator

Brings Prosperity to the Farm.

More De Laval's in use than all other makes combined. It is the WORLD'S STANDARD. With the coming of Spring, the freshening of the cows, and the coming on of the grass, you can make your milk cheaper and there is therefore no better time than RIGHT NOW to buy that De Laval. If you are thinking of buying something cheaper, better ask some of your neighbors who have already tried them and then purchased a De Laval. Just use your best judgment, then call us for a demonstration.

Our implements are moving faster than usual. We have already sold cultivators, which is a little unusual, but we believe that it was wise and suggest that in as much as it costs you no more to purchase early, that you let us have your order for anything that you might need in the implement line so that we can hold it for you. You know the market conditions as well as we, so again we advise you to use your best judgment. Come in and look through our line. It costs you nothing to look and it might be the means of saving some money. Remember the 5 per cent. cash discount. This is the place where your money buys the most.

was rendered unconscious and seriously injured when struck by an auto driven by Fred Clark and dragged for several hundred feet.

Paris.—When Thomas Boaz's auto plunged through a fence on the Cane Ridge pike he was thrown into a field and a chest of tools landed on top of him, inflicting serious injuries.

Sherrill.—In a published warning, May 21 M. Roberts states that he immediately will enforce the law which requires him to arrest and kill all dogs that have not been licensed.

Providence.—In mass meeting called by the Council, citizens voted to hold the light and water plants which are in financial straits, and agreed to higher taxation until a bond issue could be floated.

Richmond.—In a suit for $628.85 the Madison Tobacco Warehouse Co. alleges that W. G. Yancey, of Clarksville, Ya., sold five baskets of leaf at its plant and then moved them to another warehouse and sold them a second time.

Louisville.—Holding that a conductor for the Louisville Railway Co. did not exceed his authority in ejecting H.
W. Smith, an aged negro, from a chartered street car, September 16, 1917, Judge Kay's Common Pleas Jury refused to award the negro damages.

Hartsville.—A brown porcelain pitcher, with a raised likeness of George Washington, framed by a wreath on each side, is an heirloom in the family of John Noel, known to be 120 years old.

Lawrenceburg.—Valuable loot was secured by burglars who broke into store of Jenkins & Clark by removing a section of a display window, the goods being hauled away in a wagon or motor vehicle.

Carrollton.—Christopher Warner, 83, born in Germany, but a resident of this section almost all of his life, who died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Matt Hill, was the oldest resident of the county.

Lexington.—The will of W. P. Walton, Kentucky editor of note, disposes of a $25,000 estate in a total of 103 words. After small bequests to his sister and brothers, his property is left to his widow.

Cynthiana.—Captain B. T. Riggs has resigned from the Board of Education after serving 23 years, and with an unexpired term of three years and ten months ahead of him. W. M. Barkley was elected a successor.

Mayfield.—The decision of the Circuit Court that the city had the right to remove the county hitching rack, bone of a bitter fight, now will go to the Court of Appeals before the ancient institution is molested.

Versailles.—Mayor H. C. Taylor held this plow and Councilman F. J. Rump, of the Water Committee, held down the beam when the first furrow was run for the main which will bring water from the Kentucky river.

Berea.—Joseph Mokwa, head of the broom-making department at Berea College, sues the Berea Bank and Trust Co. for $2,500 damages, alleging it refused to honor his checks when he had ample funds on deposit.

Lebanon.—The Marion County Commercial Club, an organization to promote a closer relation between the people of the county and this city, has been organized here. The club started with a membership of 100.

Maysville.—H. L. Harney has wired from Pikeville, Mo., that Mrs. Fred Linder, his daughter, who disappeared during illness, had been found safe and improving. Harney went to Missouri when notified of her disappearance.

Georgetown.—Little Ralph Wesley was severely bruised and cut when knocked down and trampled by a horse driven by M. Glass, which became frightened and lunged forward as the lad was crossing the street in front of it.

Hazard.—Mystery surrounds the disposition of lumber stolen from a car on siding at Lennut, destined for this place, where it was to be used in constructing miners' houses. The most plausible guess is that it was thrown into the river as an act of revenge.

Frankfort.—Colors of the 14th Infantry, made up of the old Second and Third Kentucky, will be sent to the Frankfort arsenal, according to a communication received from the zone supply officer of Philadelphia. Colors of the 138th Field Artillery, old First Kentucky and the 336th Infantry, Kentucky regiment of the 84th Division, national army, are already at the local arsenal.

Hopkinsville.—The College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky is sending tentative statements to fourteen farmers in Christian county, showing the cost of producing tobacco on their farms during 1919. These preliminary statements show costs ranging from 11.6c to 29.1c a pound.
The average costs range from $99.03 to $308.60. The fourteen farms show an average acreage cost of $167.

Whitesburg.—It is announced here that the L. & N. railroad will double track its road east of Tavenna into coal fields of this county, terminating at the mouth of Colly, two miles above Whitesburg. At present the carrying capacity of the single line is taxed to the straining point, with coal developments just fairly started. It will be one of the most expensive ventures undertaken by the railroad in recent years.

Lexington.—Claude Lykins, charged with wife murder, was brought here from Morgan county, where the jail was not considered secure enough to hold him. He will likely remain in the Fayette jail until the time for his trial at West Liberty. He seems dazed and unable to respond to questions.
He is alleged to have killed his wife several months ago. Lykins had been in the Winchester jail until recently.

Jefferson.—Mrs. H. C. Knauer suffered a compound fracture of the left arm when she tripped on a rug and fell down stairs at her home, Edward Speed, 22, fell from a wagon on his way to town and broke his left arm.

Barbourville.—James Vaughn was brought to the hospital suffering from a pistol wound and broken arm received in a boarding house fight at Four-Mile. Charley Nichols, one of the six men engaged, is accused of having shot him.

Run-Down, Nervous Women

Louisville, Ky.—"Last year I became terribly run-down and nervous and had the symptoms peculiar to women of my age. Three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription so completely strengthened and built me up that I felt like a different woman; my nerves gave me no further trouble and I felt better in every way. 'Favorite Prescription' can be relied upon to relieve every symptom of feminine weakness and I take great pleasure in recommending it to all women who are ailing, weak or nervous."—MRS. OLIVER SHEARER, 247 N. Campbell.

IN MIDDLE-LIFE

St. Matthew, Ky.—"I suffered with such pain under my shoulder blades at night that I could hardly turn over from one side onto the other—that was during the 'change'. I also had heat flashes and functional disturbances. I began taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which gave good results. Have been a user of the same ever since. I can say that it is a splendid remedy for those who suffer with such troubles as women have to endure. I recommend it to all who suffer from such."

"I am very thankful to Dr. Pierce for his wonderful 'Favorite Prescription' and for what it has done for us in our family."—MISS MARY C. THOMAS, Route 20, Box 104.

"Weak, Run-Down and Nervous"

Frankfort, Ky.—"I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak women. Some time ago I was all run-down in health and became so weak it was an effort for me to get around. I was extremely nervous and was greatly in need of something to build me up. I took 'Favorite Prescription' and it was very beneficial in every way. I gained in strength and health and felt altogether like a different person."—MRS. L. E. TRUE, 144 E. Main St.

Feet Drag?

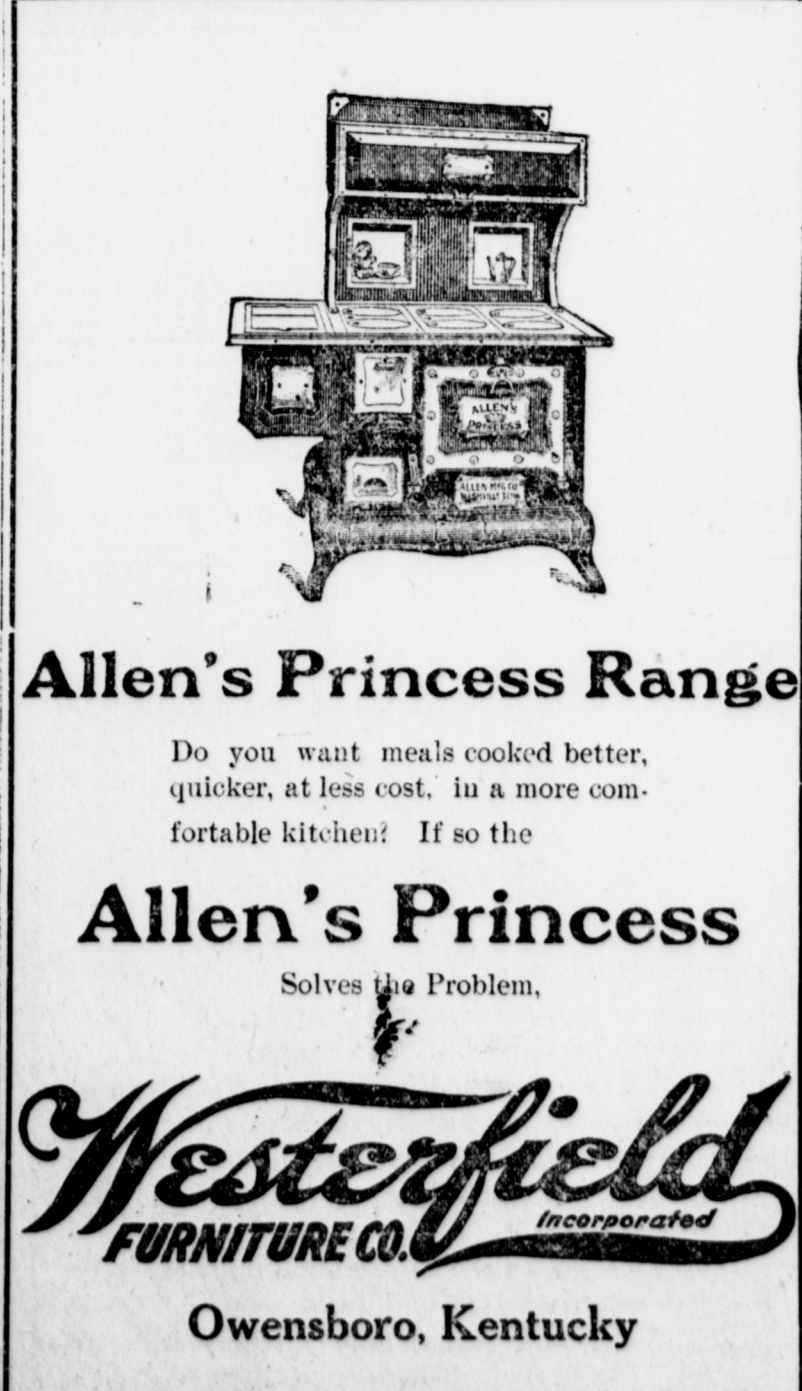

When it is an effort to drag one foot after the other, when you are always tired and seem lacking in strength and endurance, when aches and pains rack the body, it is well to look for symptoms of kidney trouble.

Foley Kidney Pills

banish effects of kidney and bladder trouble by removing the cause. They are healing and curative. They tone up and strengthen the weakened or diseased organs. They relieve backache, rheumatic pains, stiff joints, sore muscles.

W. W. Wells, Tonquin, Mich., writes: "I get great relief from taking Foley Kidney Pills. I am on my feet most of the time and get tired out. After taking Foley Kidney Pills, they make me feel like a new man. I recommend them to my customers and never have heard of any case where they did not give satisfaction."

TRANSFER SERVICE!

J. E. CURTIS

I ask the patronage of the citizens of Hartford and the traveling public in general for the following reasons:

During the past 3 years, I have tried to serve you well and have made regular trips between Hartford and Beaver Dam, rain or shine, summer and winter, good roads and bad.

Others have not made regular trips and only serve you in good weather.

I charged you only 50c and war tax, through the winter just the same as in summer.

Others are charging 75c. I have never failed to give Hartford a good word or do its citizens a good deed whenever the opportunity presented itself.

My cars leave Hartford at the following hours: 4 a. m.; 9:40 a. m.; 12:30 p. m.; 2 p. m.; and 7 p. m. Hartford headquarters at Caspary & Taylor's Restaurant.

I sincerely thank you for the many favors of the past and cordially invite your patronage for the future.

J. E. CURTIS.

GOOD PAPER ASSURED FOR CALHOUN

Calhoun, Ky., April 3.—A deal of local interest, by which W. G. Collins, former manager of the McLean County News, becomes the sole owner of the paper, was effected last Friday, Mr. Collins purchasing the plant from the McLean County News Publishing Co., a corporation composed of various business and professional men of Calhoun, which was formed last October.

The new owner will continue publication of the paper without change of character or policy.

TO OWNERS OF UNTAGGED DOGS

The law makes it the duty of every citizen, both old and young, to pay the special tax on their dog or dogs and as visible evidence that you have complied with the law, your dog must wear a tag. Most all of the people want to be law-abiding and all of us ought to be, but if we fail or refuse to comply with this special statute, to that extent we are violators of the law, even though we think but little about the matter. You are being criticised, the County is being criticised and I am being criticised, and, for my part I am resolved to perform my duty.

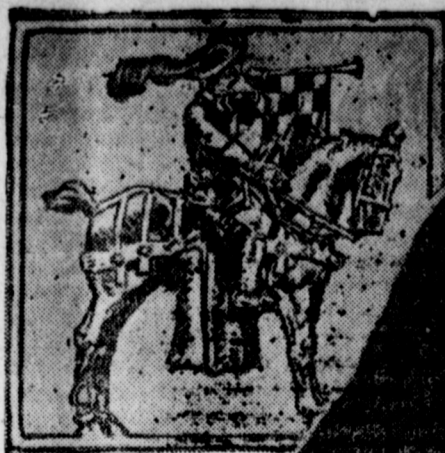

You may pay the tax and procure a tag for your dog, if you own only one male dog, for $1.00, by calling in person on the County Clerk. If you attend to the matter by mail the cost is only 2 cents extra. Now don't neglect this matter any longer, if you have not procured the tag for your dog do so, do it now, before proceedings are instituted against you. If the matter of your failure is brought before the County Judge you may count yourself lucky to escape under $25.00, and almost as certain as fate you will be caught in the net, because we are going to, as stated above, perform our duty as Sheriff. We must do it and you know what will follow. Don't be surprised to see one of my Deputies or myself any day. We are going after all alike.

13-3t Sheriff Ohio County.

Good Style and Economy

YOU know that clothes are sometimes stylish, and nothing else; they're made to catch the eye of the man who's going to buy clothes.

They do catch it; and he thinks he's getting something substantial, when he's only getting style. If there's no sound quality back of it the style is soon gone; the clothes look pretty bad.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

make our clothes; they're stylish; but the fabrics are all wool; the tailoring is of the best quality; and these are the things that give service. Such clothes save money for you in the wear you get.

Big Land Sale

On May 27, 1920

At 1:30 O'clock p. m.

There will be sold at Aberdeen, in Butler county, Ky., about 1,400 acres of Coal, Timbered and Farming Lands, known as the Aberdeen Coal Co. Land, and the Aberdeen Ferry, at public auction to settle the estate of the late Mrs. N. J. Wilford. This land is located on Green river, just below Morgantown, and is the land on which the Aberdeen Coal Mine was once operated. It is said that there are good prospects for coal upon it.

There is a good farm in operation upon this land with farm houses and out buildings.

The Aberdeen Ferry is equipped with new ferry boat and will be sold, including ferry house and a small piece of land on east bank of Green river, separate from the main body of land.
